

Japan

Tokyo is Japan's capital and the world's most populous metropolis. It is also one of Japan's 47 prefectures, consisting of 23 central city wards and multiple cities, towns and villages west of the city center. The Izu and Ogasawara Islands are also part of Tokyo. Today, Tokyo offers a seemingly unlimited choice of shopping, entertainment, culture and dining to its visitors. The city's history can be appreciated in districts such as Asakusa, and in many excellent museums, historic temples and gardens. Contrary to common perception, Tokyo also offers a number of attractive green spaces in the city center and within relatively short train rides at its outskirts.

ITINERARY

Day 1: Day 1: Tokyo arrival & Transfer to Hotel

On the surface Japan appears exceedingly modern, but travelling around it offers numerous opportunities to connect with the country's traditional culture. Spend the night in a ryokan (traditional Japanese inn), sleeping on futons and tatami mats, and padding through well-worn wooden halls to the bathhouse (or go one step further and sleep in an old farmhouse).

Day 2: Day 2: Afternoon Tokyo Skytree, Asakusa and Central Tokyo Sightseeing Tour Without Hotel Pickup

Asakusa and Tokyo Skytree tour -See the Imperial Palace Plaza, National Diet Building, State Guest

House, Ginza and Akihabara -Visit the Asakusa district in Tokyo and discover --the ancient Senso-ji

Buddhist temple Enjoy panoramic views from Japan's highest structure at the Tokyo Skytree

Day 3: Day 3: Mount Fuji and Hakone Day Trip Without Hotel Pickup Drop Off

Highlights: -Cruise through the waters of Lake Ashi -Take a 50-minute ropeway trek up Mt. --- Komagatake -Gaze upon the natural grace of Mt. Fuji

Day 4: Day 4: Free day for shopping/optional tour

Japan is truly timeless, a place where ancient traditions are fused with modern life as if it were the most natural thing in the world. Major cities have subway networks that are signposted in English and these days we're seeing and hearing more English all over. But if getting off the beaten track and outside your comfort zone is what you're after, you can have that experience, too.

Day 5: Day 5: Back home with sweet memory

After enjoying breakfast, check-out of your hotel in the afternoon and proceed to the airport to board your return flight. Our representative will be right at hotel lobby for departure back to airport.
